

Quartermaster Branik

Name: Branik Hald

Role: Quartermaster of Moonrest Haven

Ancestry: Human

Age: 54

Disposition:

Pragmatic, blunt, quietly protective of the island.

Branik speaks little but observes everything. Nothing enters or leaves Moonrest without his awareness.

Role in Moonrest Haven

Everyone on Moonrest knows Branik.

He has served as quartermaster for nearly thirty years.

The village trusts him because:

- he never wastes supplies
- he keeps exact records
- he does not tolerate theft

Common local sayings include:

"If Branik says the nets are short, the sea itself would agree."

"Nothing disappears on Moonrest unless Branik allows it."

Branik is also known to:

- quietly assist struggling families during bad fishing seasons
- extend supplies to boats damaged by storms
- refuse outsiders access to stores without Elder Saelin's approval

He is respected but not particularly liked.

Personality

Branik values practical survival over sentiment.

Traits:

- Blunt speaker
- Suspicious of outsiders
- Patient observer
- Deeply loyal to Moonrest

He does not waste words.

When he speaks, it is usually because something matters.
